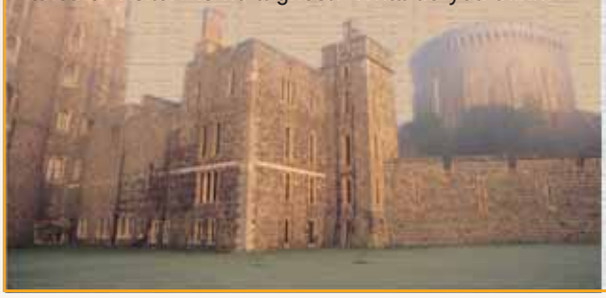
Do you believe in ghosts? Do you want to see a vampire?
There are many haunted castles that you can visit in Great Britain!

Come to Windsor Castle in Berkshire, England! Windsor Castle is one of the homes of the British Royal Family. It is also the home of many royal ghosts! Listen carefully and perhaps you will hear the footsteps and moans of King Henry VIII ... but he died in 1547! Look quickly and perhaps you will see Anne Boleyn, King Henry VIII's second wife, at a window in one of the towers. Or maybe you will notice Queen Elizabeth I as she walks from room to room ... but she died in 1603!

Don't miss Cardiff Castle in Wales!

Visitors to Cardiff Castle have seen a strange man, and then he suddenly disappears. Others have felt a man pushing them. People have heard doors locking and have seen cupboards moving. Some people can even describe the man. He is tall and wears a long, red cloak. Does the man work in the castle? Is he another visitor? Is he a ghost? What do you think?



Visit Glamis Castle in Scotland!

Glamis Castle is the most haunted castle in Scotland. It is the home of witches, monsters and ghosts, and the famous Glamis vampire! The Glamis vampire is a woman servant. She was caught sucking the blood of her victim. Some people believe that she was locked up in a secret room, and she is still waiting there for someone to free her! People say you can hear screams and noises in Glamis Castle. The bed linen sometimes disappears off the beds, and there are doors that never stay closed!
