Page 9, Exercise 3

- Nick: Hi. You're new here, aren't you?
Pari: Yes. Today is my first day.
Nick: It's a great school. What's your name?
Pari: Pari.
Nick: That's an unusual name.
Pari: Not in my country! A lot of girls are called Pari.
Nick: Where are you from?
Pari: India.
Nick: So, what language do you speak?
Pari: I speak Hindi to my parents and English to my friends.
Nick: I'd love to go to India. What are you eating? Is that Indian bread?
Pari: Yes. It's called chapatti. It's very popular in India. Here, try some.
Nick: Mmm, it's delicious!
Pari: Where are you from, Nick?
Nick: Oh, I'm from Sweden.
Pari: What food is popular in your country?
Nick: Meatballs! I'm having some for lunch. Here, try some.
Pari: Thank you, but I don't eat meat.

UNIT 2

- Robert: Let's go to the beach this weekend, Anna.
Anna: Great! I love the beach.
Robert: Me too! I always go to the beach on Saturday mornings. I usually leave the house at around 6.30 am, and I'm at the beach by 7.00.
Anna: Wow – that's early. I'm still asleep then. I never get up that early at the weekend.
Robert: When do you usually get up?
Anna: Oh, at around 12.00.
Robert: Really? But that's so late!
Anna: I know, but I go to bed very late at the weekend, so I never get up early on Saturday or Sunday.
Robert: What time do you go to bed?
Anna: Um, ... at around 3.00 am.
Robert: Well, I'm not surprised you can't get up!
Anna: Maybe we can go to the beach later in the day, say around 1.00 pm?
Robert: That's not a good idea. It's too hot then, and anyway I often work on Saturday afternoons.
Anna: You do? I didn't know that. What kind of work do you do?
Robert: I work at a pizza place. I usually start at 1.00 pm and finish at around 7.00.
Anna: Well, it doesn't look like we're going to the beach on Saturday, then.
Robert: Wait – I've got an idea. Let's go when I finish work. It's not hot at 7.00 in the evening.
Anna: And I'm not sleeping. Great idea!

UNIT 3

- Rick: Hi, Sharon! Are you coming to get me at the bus stop?
- Sharon: No, I can't leave the house right now because I'm watching my little brother. I sent you an email with the address – didn't you get it?
- Rick: No, I didn't. Where's your house?
- Sharon: My house is on Oak Street, not far from the bus stop.
- Rick: How do I get there?
- Sharon: From the bus stop, turn left on Park Street.
- Rick: I'm on the corner of Park Street and Linden Road right now.
- Sharon: So keep going straight on Park Street. You need to pass the sports centre on the corner, and then you'll see Oak Street.
- Rick: OK. Then where do I go?
- Sharon: After you turn right on Oak Street, you'll see a big church. My house is opposite the church.
- Rick: Great. Thanks.
- Sharon: See you soon!

UNIT 4

- Rachel: Hi, Jared.
- Jared: Hi, Rachel. Did you have a good weekend?
- Rachel: Yes, it was great.
- Jared: What did you do?
- Rachel: On Saturday afternoon, I went on a picnic with some friends. Then at night, we went dancing at the new nightclub.
- Jared: When did you get home?
- Rachel: At 2 o'clock in the morning! That's why I'm so tired.
- Jared: I'm tired, too.
- Rachel: Why? What did you do at the weekend?
- Jared: My parents are away, so I had to stay at home with my little brother.
- Rachel: That's not so bad.
- Jared: Yeah, but on Saturday, I had to do all the housework, too. I spent Saturday morning doing the laundry. Then I made dinner and washed the dishes.
- Rachel: Wow, that is a lot of work.
- Jared: At least on Sunday my brother and I had a good time.
- Rachel: Where did you go?
- Jared: We went to the cinema.
- Rachel: That sounds like fun.
- Jared: It was – but next weekend, I just want to sleep!

Page 41, Exercises 3 and 4

- Tony: In picture A, a man is hiking in the mountains. There aren't any trees, so it isn't shady. It's a sunny day, but it looks cold because there's snow on the mountains and the man is wearing warm clothes. There aren't any other people in the picture. The man is alone, but he seems happy. It's very peaceful.
- Susan: In picture B, people are shopping at a market. The market is outdoors. There are a lot of people, and it seems very crowded and lively. It looks like it's a warm sunny day because the people are wearing summer clothes. It looks like the people are enjoying themselves. It's fun to watch all the interesting people at the market.

- In both pictures, there's a kitchen. In picture A, the kitchen is old, but in picture B, it's modern. There's an oven in both kitchens, but in picture B, there's also a microwave.
- In picture A, there are two people – a man and a woman – but in picture B, there are four people – a man, a woman and two girls. The older girl is making pancakes. They're wearing pyjamas, so it's probably a Sunday morning. The woman in picture A is preparing food too. She's making a cake. The man is dressed for work, so it's not a weekend. In both pictures, it looks like the people are happy.

UNIT 7

 Page 57, Exercises 3 and 4Wendy: Hi, Tim.Tim: Hi, Wendy. What's that brochure?Wendy: It's for a prison ... well, actually, it's a hotel. I'm going to stay there.Tim: What? Why would you want to stay in a prison?Wendy: Because it's a cool experience!Tim: Hmm. What are you going to do there?Wendy: I'm going to learn all about criminals' lives, sleep on a bed on the floor and eat the terrible prison food.Tim: Sounds ... interesting. Who are you going with?Wendy: My dad and I are going together, just the two of us.Tim: How long are you going to stay there?Wendy: Just one night. I don't think I could stay longer than that!Tim: What are you going to pack?Wendy: They don't let you keep any of your things. I'm just going to pack a sweater to wear under the prison uniform. It's going to be cold!Tim: I'm amazed that you agreed to do this. You hate the cold!Wendy: True, but it's only one night. Where are you going for your holiday?Tim: My family is taking a normal beach holiday on the coast. I'm packing my swimsuit and my scuba diving equipment.Wendy: We're also going to the beach at the end of the summer. When are you going?Tim: We're going in the last week of August.Wendy: Great! Maybe we'll see each other there ... and I'll tell you all about prison life.

UNIT 8

 Page 65, Exercises 3 and 4Lisa: I'm so nervous about my English project, Nick.Nick: Why, Lisa? What do you have to do?Lisa: I have to describe my favourite character from a book.Nick: That doesn't sound so difficult. Why are you nervous?Lisa: Because I don't even know how to begin.Nick: OK. I'll ask you some questions. First of all, what's the character's name?Lisa: Her name is Katniss Everdeen, from The Hunger Games.Nick: What's she like? Why is she so special?Lisa: Well, she's very brave. She takes her sister's place in the dangerous Hunger Games and she fights the cruel President Snow.Nick: What else can you tell me about her?Lisa: She's also kind. She takes care of another girl named Rue, even though they're rivals in the games.Nick: She sounds amazing! Uh ... what does she look like?Lisa: The book describes her as thin but very strong. She's beautiful too, but her appearance isn't what helps her win the Hunger Games. She wins because she's clever and she's good at fighting.Nick: Cool! Now I want to read the book, too.Lisa: Well, you'll have to wait. I'm giving it to Tammy next. But you can always watch the films instead.Nick: Good idea! I think I will.

UNIT 9

Jane: Hi, Ryan. You look thrilled. What happened?
Ryan: You won't believe it, Jane!
Jane: Tell me!
Ryan: Do you remember that photography course I took last summer?
Jane: Yes. Your pictures were fantastic.
Ryan: Well, my teacher called and told me about a photography competition at the art museum. So, I decided to enter one of my photographs.
Jane: And ... ?
Ryan: I won! I was so surprised!
Jane: Wow! But why were you surprised? You're very talented.
Ryan: Well, there were a lot of participants.
Jane: Was there an event to announce the winner?
Ryan: Yes, there was a ceremony at the museum last night.
Jane: Were you alone?
Ryan: No, I wasn't. My parents were with me and my brother came, too.
Jane: I'm sure they're very proud of you!
Ryan: Yeah, I felt a bit embarrassed at all the attention, but now I just feel great.
Jane: Can I see your photograph?
Ryan: Yes, it'll be at the museum for the next month.

UNIT 10

Page 81, Exercises 3 and 4

Zoe: Have you ever volunteered, Robbie?
Robbie: Yes, I have. I volunteered at a reptile sanctuary once.
Zoe: A reptile sanctuary! I can't believe anyone would do that! Did you enjoy it?
Robbie: Yes, I did. It was amazing. How about you, Zoe? Would you like to try it?
Zoe: No! That's not my idea of fun!
Robbie: What's wrong with volunteering?
Zoe: Nothing's wrong with volunteering. I volunteered last year at an old age home.
Robbie: That sounds interesting. Did you enjoy it?
Zoe: Oh, yes. I really enjoyed meeting the people there and hearing their stories. But volunteering with snakes? No, thanks. How crazy can people be?
Robbie: It's not just snakes. There are also spiders, crocodiles, alligators ...
Zoe: Yuck! I can understand volunteering with cats, dogs or horses – but snakes? No, thank you. It's too frightening. Why did you do it, Robbie?
Robbie: Because it's something different. Cats, dogs and horses are cute, so lots of people want to work with them. But reptiles also need someone to work with them.
Zoe: Mmm ... Maybe you're right. So, where did you do it?
Robbie: At the reptile sanctuary in Rockworth.
Zoe: When were you there?
Robbie: Last summer. I volunteered for two months.
Zoe: Would you do it again?
Robbie: Oh, yes. In fact, they've even offered me a job. I'm going to work there on Saturdays!
