Laura: Hi Sandy! This is Laura.
Sandy: Oh, hi Laura! Where are you? Are you still at your photography summer camp?
Laura: Yes, I am. My parents are here for a visit, so I’m talking to you on my dad’s phone. How are you, Sandy?
Sandy: I’m fine. Right now I’m at the zoo with my little sister.
Laura: Then you and I are watching the animals at the same time. We often take photographs of animals here. I love taking photos of the fish. They’re very colourful.
Sandy: What about snakes, Laura? Have you got any snakes at the camp? The snakes here at the zoo are very interesting.
Laura: We’ve got snakes here, but I’m scared of them. I prefer taking photographs of fish and birds. Oh, and Sandy there are some dolphins here, too.
Sandy: Dolphins? I love dolphins, Laura!
Laura: Then why don’t you come and visit me at camp next weekend? My parents can bring you next Sunday.
Sandy: That’s a great idea. OK, so see you on Sunday.
Sandy: Bye.

Father: Can you look at the map and tell me where to turn? I don’t want to miss the road to Plymouth.

Mother: All right! We’re on route 3 at the moment.

Father: Right. So what do I do next?

Mother: Well we need to follow the signs to route 44 and then drive east.

Father: OK.

Girl: There’s a sign – it says Plymouth! >>>
Father: Great! We’re on the right road. We can see Mayflower II first, and then we can have lunch. OK, Jenny?
Girl: OK, but what is Mayflower II?
Mother: Mayflower II is a replica of the first pilgrims’ ship. Some people built it in England. Then, in 1957, a group of people sailed it to the USA, in the same way as the original pilgrims.
Father: Well – here’s Plymouth. Where do I go now?
Mother: Go towards the sea and turn right onto Water Street. Then, go straight until you can see the ship.
Girl: Is there anything else to do in Plymouth?
Mother: Yes. There’s a pilgrim village near the ship.
Girl: Great. I want to go there, too.
Father: OK. We can visit the pilgrim village after lunch.

Listening

Reporter: Good afternoon and welcome to the show. Today, I’m talking to a rodeo clown at the Wild West Rodeo Show. Hi there and thanks for talking to me. What's your name?

Clown: My clown name's Flint. Flint’s a name from the wild west. The names of rodeo clowns are often from the Wild West.

Reporter: You’re rodeo clowns, but do you wear clown’s clothes?

Clown: Oh, yes. We wear clown costumes and do silly things. But the real work starts when the bull rider comes into the ring.

Reporter: What happens then?

Clown: Well, rodeo clowns usually work in threes. Today, I’m working with Tex and Eddie over there. Two clowns shout at the bull from a distance and the third clown is the barrel man. He gets near the bull. The clown's got a barrel and he jumps into it when the bull comes very close to him.

Reporter: Phew! What does he do then?

Clown: Well, he waits until the bull moves away. Then he jumps out of the barrel again.

Reporter: It sounds dangerous!

Clown: It is very dangerous – we sometimes get hurt. But we don’t usually get hurt badly.

Reporter: Wow! Do you enjoy your work?

Clown: It’s great to hear everyone in the audience clapping their hands ... and when the cowboys thank us – the rodeo clowns – for our work, it’s a wonderful feeling. The cowboys like the clowns to be in the ring.

Reporter: Do you mind if we stay and watch the show?

Clown: Of course, you can. You’re welcome!

Reporter: Thanks for talking to us Flint, and good luck.

Tina: Isn’t this a great restaurant? There are so many things to choose from on the menu. What do you want, Nancy?
Nancy: I’m not sure ... maybe I’ll have pizza ... . No ... No ... It’s not healthy! I’ll have a tuna salad!
Tina: That’s a good idea, Nancy. Tuna salad is very healthy. What about you, Greg?
Greg: Well, I don’t care about healthy food and I love pizza – so I’m ordering pizza, some chips – and chocolate milk ... that sounds like a good meal to me.
Tina: Pizza, chips and chocolate milk isn’t a healthy meal. Everybody needs to eat healthy food, Greg. What are you having to drink, Nancy?
Nancy: Um ... apple juice. I love apple juice.
Tina: OK, so Greg and Nancy know what they want. What about you, Jason?
Jason: I can’t decide ... everything sounds delicious.
Tina: It is!
Jason: Um ... I ... I want chicken and vegetables.
Greg: What? Chicken and vegetables – but you can have chicken and vegetables at home ... that’s boring.
Jason: I like chicken and vegetables so I’m having chicken and vegetables.
Tina: Greg, Jason likes healthy food – and that’s good. OK then we’re ready to order. Let’s call the waiter.
Nancy: But Tina, what about you? What are you having?
Tina: Oh ... I’ll have a chocolate cake and some chocolate milk.

Clerk: No, I’m sorry. Our prices don’t include breakfast. But you can make breakfast in the kitchen.

Mrs Davis: Yes, I suppose that’s OK.

Clerk: So, when do you want to come?

Mrs Davis: Um … on the 5th of August. That’s next month – is that OK?

Clerk: I think so. Let me check. OK. Yes, there’s no problem. You can come on the 5th of August. Let me take your details and we can do the booking.

Listening

Jodi: Pete… you can’t believe this place …it’s amazing!

Pete: Where are you, Jodi?

Jodi: We’re at a safari park in South Africa. We’re staying in little houses in the middle of the jungle. It’s fantastic.

Pete: Wow!

Jodi: Each little house has got two rooms! My bed’s next to the window and yesterday I saw a gorilla drinking water from the small swimming pool outside. I was really scared.

Pete: A gorilla? I can’t believe it! Do you see a lot of animals?

Jodi: Well, yesterday, we went on a special bus into the jungle and we saw zebras, giraffes and other animals too.

Pete: Did you see lions and cheetahs? >>>
Jodi: We saw a lion. It was asleep under a tree, but we didn’t see any cheetahs.
Pete: That’s a shame!
Jodi: But, we saw some elephants and rhinos. They were far away but we looked at them with our binoculars. There was a baby elephant too. It was so cute.
Pete: Wow! You’re so lucky! What about at night? What do you do?
Jodi: Well, last night we went to a party in the hotel. It was fun!
Mum: Jodi, come on. We’re going.
Jodi: Oh, my mum’s calling me. I’ve got to go. See you next week.
Pete: Great. Have a good time. Bye!

Listening

Manager: Hello everybody. Welcome to Dawson’s Electronics. We hope you all enjoy your day here. Dawson’s always has a day once a year, for children to come to work with their parents. We hope today is going to be a good day for you all. Before we start, I want to look at the plan for today with you. At 9 o’clock you’re going to meet Mrs Robson. She’s going to tell you about our safety rules. After that, you’re all going to the meeting room at half past nine. Mr Wendel is going to explain about the company and the different things we do here. Any questions so far?

Boy 1: Are we going to do any of the work?
Manager: Of course. I’m going to explain that to you now. After that, you’re going to get into three groups. Each group is going to work in a different section for an hour and then move to the next section. The three sections are the laboratory, the office and the factory.

Boy 2: I think we’re going to be hungry after that!
Manager: I think you’re right. Don’t worry. After that, you’re going to the restaurant. You’re going to get a big lunch there today.

Girl: What about after lunch?
Manager: After lunch, you’re going to shadow your parents.

Girl: What’s that?
Manager: It means you’re going to follow your parents and see what they do all day. Oh, here’s Mrs Robson now so let’s get started.
