Mark: Hi, is this the kayaking school?
 Greg: Yes, it is. How can I help you?
 Mark: Well, my name is Mark and I read about your kayaking school on the Internet. I really want to learn how to kayak.
 Greg: Do you know how to kayak at all?
 Mark: Not really. I need to learn the basics.
 Greg: That's not a problem. We've got a beginners' class.
 Mark: How long does it take to learn how to kayak?
 Greg: You can learn the basics in just a few days.
 Mark: That's great, because I'm only staying on Long Beach Peninsula for the summer. When can I start?

Greg: Do you want to start tomorrow? We've got kayaking lessons every day at Willapa Bay.

Mark: Where's Willapa Bay?

Greg: Oh, it's right here at Long Beach.

Mark: That sounds perfect!

Greg: OK, there's a lesson at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning. It's a good idea to get here 15 minutes before the lesson starts.

Mark: Do I need any equipment?

Greg: Don't worry. We give you everything you need. Now, I need your name and phone number and some other details.....

Secretary: Good morning, this is the London triathlon office. Can I help you?

Larry: Good morning, my name is Larry Dean. I want to participate in the triathlon. I love running and cycling but I hate swimming. Also, I don't want to be in a team. Can I participate?

Secretary: Well, not in the triathlon, but we've got something called the duathlon.

Larry: Really! What's that?

Secretary: The duathlon has got only two activities – running and cycling.

Larry: Great! When is it?

Secretary: The triathlon is on the first weekend in August and the duathlon event is on that Sunday.

Larry: How can I register?

Secretary: You can come to the office or complete the form on our website.

Larry: And how do I pay?

Secretary: You can pay by credit card.

Larry: That's great. Thanks for the information. Bye.

Secretary: You're welcome. Bye.

- Linda: I'm getting ready for the trivia game at school tomorrow, Michael. Do you want to help me?
- Michael: OK, Linda. What do I have to do?
- Linda: Well, ask me questions about Alaska from this list.
- Michael: OK. What's the capital city of Alaska?
- Linda: Oh, that's easy! Juneau.
- Michael: And why is Juneau special?
- Linda: Umm ... because it's the capital of Alaska?
- Michael: That's a silly answer! It's special because you can only get there by plane or boat.
- Linda: Oh! I didn't know that.
- Michael: OK. How many lakes are there in Alaska?
- Linda: I know that one. More than 3 million! Ask me a hard question now.
- Michael: Hard ... mmm ... How far is Alaska from Russia?
- Linda: Wait, I know this, umm ... Alaska is about five kilometres from Russia!
- Michael: You're right! Wow! Alaska and Russia are really close to each other!
- Linda: OK, one more question, Michael. Then I have to go home.
- >>>

- Michael: Mmm Which sport is the most popular in Alaska?
- Linda: Oh! I'm not sure ... Skiing? Skating?
- Michael: Sorry. It's dog mushing!
- Linda: Oh, right, dog mushing. I'm not doing very well, am I?
- Michael: No, not great. You've got some more work to do!
- Linda: No TV tonight

Tour Agent: Was there a problem? Did you enjoy the tour?

Jean: I enjoyed it very much, but I left my bag on the bus and I need it back.

Tour Agent: Well, let me see if I can help you. What time did you get on the bus?

Jean: I got on the bus at 10.00 this morning. The driver said we were the first group.

Tour agent: And where did you get on the bus?

Jean: I got on at Grafton Street. A lot of other people got on the bus with me.

Tour Agent: Do you remember where you sat on the bus?

Jean: Of course! I sat at the back, near a window.

Tour Agent: Well, that helps. Now, can you describe the bag?

Jean: Yes, it's a big red bag and it says "Ireland" on it. It's my favourite bag.

Tour Agent: Mmm..... Was it on the seat?

Jean: No, I think I left it under my seat.

Tour Agent: OK, give me your phone number. I'll talk to the driver and call you back. I hope we find your bag.

Lyn: Stephanie! You're back! How was your trip?

Steph: Hi, Lyn! It was wonderful! I love Mexico. It's the most beautiful place in the world. We went to this great place called Chichén Itzá.

Lyn: Chicken what?

Steph: Not chicken Chichén Itzá. It's a famous place in Yucatan.

Lyn: I thought you were in Mexico.

Steph: I was! Yucatan is a state in Mexico. The Mayan people built amazing pyramids in Chichén Itzá.

Lyn: Who were the Mayan people?

Steph: They were one of the oldest civilisations in the world.

Lyn: Really? I didn't know there were pyramids in Mexico. I thought the pyramids were in Egypt.

Steph: Lyn, don't you ever listen in geography lessons? We learnt about the Mayans and the pyramids!

Lyn: Well, you know – it's so boring. So, how old are the pyramids?

Steph: They're more than 1,500 years old!

Lyn: That's very old! Are they big?

Steph: Yes. The largest pyramid is called Kukulcan and it's got 365 steps.

Lyn: One for each day of the year! It sounds like an amazing place.

Steph: Yeah, it is.

Sandy: Hi, Brad. How's Ireland?

Brad: Fantastic. Tomorrow we're going to go to Thurles because we want to see leprechauns! Lots of people in Ireland go to Thurles to see leprechauns.

Sandy: To see ... what? Lepri ...

Brad: Leprechauns --- "little people". They're very small and can sit on your shoulder. They wear green jackets and trousers and green shoes. Leprechauns usually hide so you can't see them.

Sandy: Why do they hide?

Brad: Because every leprechaun has got a pot of gold. Many people want to catch a leprechaun and take the gold.

Sandy: Did anyone ever find a pot of gold?

Brad: No. Leprechauns always trick people. Yesterday I heard this story about leprechauns. A man caught a leprechaun in his garden. The man said, "Where is your gold?" The leprechaun said, "High up in that tree." The man knew it was true because leprechauns must always tell the truth. So the man put a red scarf in the tree and went home to get a rope to help him climb the tree.

Sandy: So what happened?

Brad: The man returned and saw hundreds of red scarves in all the trees! The leprechaun did it.

Sandy: Ha ha ha – that's good. Well, have a great time in Thurles and I hope you see a leprechaun!

Brad: Thanks – talk to you soon,
Bye!

Sandy: OK - Bye.

Dear Amy,

I arrived on the Isle of Wight this morning.

First, I'm going on a boat ride on the sea. Then I'm going to go horse riding. Finally, I'm going fishing. There is great fishing here. I hope it doesn't rain!

Talk to you soon,

Jane

Interviewer: Hello, this is Steve Foley with two hours of good music and interesting interviews. Today, my first guest is Professor Theo Dillon, an expert on space travel. Good morning, Professor Dillon.

Prof: Good morning, Steve. Please, call me Theo!

Interviewer: OK, Theo. Most people think only astronauts can travel to space, but that's not true, is it?

Prof: No, in the future, there will be space tourists. If you have enough money, you'll be able to travel to space.

Interviewer: How much will a ticket to space cost?

Prof: Well, at the moment, a ticket for a seat on Space Shuttle Two costs $200,000.

Interviewer: Wow! That's a very expensive ticket!

Prof: Yes, it certainly is! The Space Shuttle's first trip will be in about five years, but they haven't got an exact date yet.

Interviewer: How long will the trip to space be?

Prof: Only about five minutes, I'm afraid. The space shuttle will travel 100 kilometres above Earth and it will stay there for five minutes. Then it will return.

Interviewer: So space tourists won't visit Mars or go to the moon?

Prof: No, the trip will be short but very, very expensive!

Interviewer: Well, listeners, if you want to travel to space, start saving now! Thanks for being with us, Theo!

Prof: Thank you for having me on your show, Steve.

Brian: Hi, Emily. How was your summer? Did you do anything special?

Emily: Hi, Brian. Yes, I had a wonderful summer! I went to the Edinburgh International Festival in Scotland.

Brian: Really? That sounds like fun! It's a music festival, isn't it?

Emily: It's more than just a music festival, Brian. It's got theatre, dance and a lot of other cultural activities.

Brian: How long were you at the festival?

Emily: The festival was from 10th August till 2nd September, but I only went for the first five days.

Brian: So, what kinds of performances did you see?
 Emily: Oh, all kinds. I went to a rock concert and I also saw a modern dance performance. They were both fantastic, but I liked the dance performance better.
 Brian: What else did you go to?
 Emily: Well, I love dance so I went to see the Scottish ballet and they were amazing. I wasn't sure I'd like ballet – but I did!
 Brian: Was it your first visit to Scotland?
 Emily: Yes, it was, and Edinburgh is a beautiful city.
 Brian: How much of Edinburgh did you see?
 Emily: I saw some of it, but I didn't have time to see a lot. Part of the festival was in a building called the Hub and that's right next to Edinburgh Castle, so I visited the castle twice.
 Brian: Well, Emily, it sounds like you had a great time.
 Emily: I really did! And how was your summer, Brian?
 Brian: Oh, I broke my leg while I was playing football, so I couldn't go anywhere.
 Emily: Oh, that's a shame, Brian! I'm glad you're better now. Let's hurry, we've got a lesson ...

I returned from the Green Man Festival last night. It's the best festival in Wales. The festival went on for three days. There were great bands. On the first night, Robert Plant was performing in the main tent. All the people were clapping and singing. The next day, I went to see The Strange Sensations. They were fantastic! I really enjoyed those three days.

Teacher: Good morning, everyone. Welcome to our yearly treasure hunt. This year, our treasure is very special. But of course, I won't tell you what it is. You'll have to find it and see for yourself! But first, let me explain the rules of the treasure hunt.

Kyle: Where's the map?

Teacher: I'm going to explain everything, Kyle. You can work in pairs and each pair gets a map. There are clues on the map. You should read the clues very carefully.

Laura: What if we don't understand a clue? Can we ask for help?

Teacher: No, you can't, Laura. Each pair must work alone. You mustn't talk to anyone else while you're on the treasure hunt. Do you understand?

Sandy: We understand, but what if someone calls on our mobile phones?

Teacher: You mustn't take your mobile phones, Sandy! It's not allowed! Now, you must follow the clues and try to find the treasure in three hours. You can't have more than three hours to look for the treasure. When you solve a clue, there'll be another clue to help you find the treasure. You must solve ALL the clues to find the treasure.

Brad: What should we do if we find the treasure?

Teacher: I'm going to give each pair a bell. If you find the treasure, you should ring your bell very loudly, like this. I'll come to you. Are you ready? Here are maps and bells. Each pair should have a pen and paper. Is everybody ready? Can we start now?

Whole group: Yes!

Teacher: Right then, have fun and good luck!

Hi Tom,

How are you? The Swiss Alps were great. In summer, it can get very cold at night, so you should bring a sleeping bag. During the day, the sun is strong, so you must take sunscreen and a sunhat. You shouldn't forget your camera to take pictures of the forests, the waterfalls and the lakes.

I'm sure you'll have a wonderful time. Call me when you get back.
