Unit 1, page 17 (CD 5, Track 02)

- Tina: Mum, I need to make a family tree for school. Can you help me?
- Mum: Of course, Tina. First, write Rita's name and Joe's name. They are your grandmother and grandfather, so put them at the top.
- Tina: What's next?
- Mum: Write my name, Pamela, and your father's name,
- Oliver: Don't forget to write your Aunt Janet's name and your Uncle Tom's name, too.
- Tina: OK. Now I write Lily's name and my name here, right?
- Mum: Yes. Write your name and your sister's name under me and your father. Under Janet and Tom, write your cousin's name, Daniel.
- Tina: Great! Thanks, Mum.

Unit 2, page 27 (CD 5, Track 04)

Welcome to Hillview Drama School. Your teachers for the summer course are Don, Mary and James. Our school has got four classrooms and each room is a different colour – red, yellow, blue and green. Here's your schedule for the next two weeks. The first lesson is with Mary in the yellow room. It starts at 9 o'clock. At 10.15, you've got a lesson with James. He teaches in the blue room, opposite Mary's. Students have lunch at 12.30. Our chef, Sue, makes the lunches. After lunch, go to the red room. It's the music room and Ned is your music teacher. Ned sings and plays the guitar. At 3 o'clock, you've got a lesson with Don in the green room. Good luck and enjoy the course.

Unit 3, page 37 (CD 5, Track 06)

Do you want an easy recipe to cook? Here is a fast way to make delicious chicken soup. Start with the vegetables. Cut six potatoes, four carrots and two onions. Put them all in a pot. Now we need the chicken. Put four pieces of chicken in the pot. Don't forget to add salt! When everything is in the pot, add five cups of water. Now your soup is ready to cook. Put the pot on the cooker for 45 minutes to one hour. Serve with bread on the side.

Unit 4, page 47 (CD 5, Track 08)

- 1
- Girl: A new shopping centre is opening in Helmsville.
- Friend: I know! I'm reading an article about it right now. It's got 200 shops and restaurants.
- Girl: Wow! Has it got a cinema?
- Friend: No, but it's got a beautiful park in the middle.
- 2
- Daughter: Hey, Mum, what are you doing?
- Mum: I'm looking at our family photos.
- Daughter: What am I doing in this picture?
- Mum: You're jumping up and down. Everyone is sitting and having dinner, but you are running around the room!

- 3
- Boy: A comedy film is showing at Park Cinema tonight. Do you want to see it?
- Girl: I really want to see the new science-fiction film. It's showing at Rose Cinema.
- Boy: That film has got terrible reviews! Are any action films showing tonight?
- Girl: No. So, let's see the comedy. What time does it start?

- 4
- Owner: Welcome to Happy Bakery. Can I help you?
- Man: Yes, I'd like to buy some chocolate cake.
- Owner: I'm sorry, we haven't got cake today. But we have got apple pie and delicious banana bread.
- Man: Okay, I'll take the banana bread. Thanks.

Unit 5, page 57 (CD 5, Track 10)

- Russ: Hey, Pat. What do you want to do this winter holiday? Let's go to Scotland and stay at a holiday home in the mountains.
- Pat: No, Russ. It's cold in the mountains. I want to go to a place with beaches.
- Russ: Not the beach again, Pat! I want to walk in the mountains and see valleys and forests.
- Pat: I want to go to Barbados. It's got beautiful white beaches and very nice hotels.
- Mum: Barbados! I'm very sorry, kids, but we haven't got the money to travel to Scotland or Barbados. We're staying here!
- Russ: But, Mum, we want to do something fun this winter holiday!
- Mum: OK, so let's think. There aren't any beaches or mountains near here, but there are some beautiful lakes just three hours away.
- Pat: Are there any nice hotels near them?
- Russ: I'm looking online now ... There is a very nice hotel by one of the lakes. And it's opposite a big forest!
- Mum: Great! Let's all go there for a weekend this winter holiday.

Unit 6, page 67 (CD 5, Track 12)

- Emma: Hey, Jake.
- Jake: Hi, Emma.
- Emma: We're having a competition day at school and we must all think of ideas for competitions. Can you think of anything?
- Jake: What ideas have the other students got?
- Emma: Well, we're having a pie-making competition ... and there's a fashion competition. Students are making clothes from newspapers.
- Jake: That's an unusual idea. Let's look online for ideas. Hmm. What about having a retro running competition?
- Emma: What's that?
- Jake: It's like a normal running competition, but the participants run in reverse.
- Emma: Really?
- Jake: Yes. Look at this website. They've got retrorunning marathons in Germany and in England!
- Emma: Wow! So I can organise a retrorunning competition at school. Have you got any ideas for a prize for the winner?
- Jake: Um. A ticket for a football match?
- Emma: Some of the kids at school don't like football. What about a T-shirt? We can print a picture of a person running in reverse on it.
- Jake: Great idea!

Unit 7, page 77 (CD 5, Track 14)

- Karl: Hi, Aika. Are you still in Japan?
- Aika: Yes, I'm in Sapporo at the moment.
- Karl: What are you doing there?
- Aika: Well, yesterday, I was at the Sapporo Snow Festival. It's a famous winter event in Japan.
- Karl: That sounds fun.
- Aika: It was. Every year, there are usually about 400 ice and snow sculptures at the event. This year, there was a replica of the Arc de Triomphe. It was 17.5 metres tall!
- Karl: Wow! What other sculptures were there?
- Aika: Well, everyone is talking about the sculpture of the American president, Donald Trump. It was very popular at the event.
- Karl: Was that your favourite sculpture?
- Aika: No. I prefer sculptures of animals. This year, there were beautiful ice sculptures of horses, birds, and lions. Those were my favourite.
- Karl: Are you going back to the festival today?
- Aika: Maybe later. But now, I want to get something to eat. There's a food festival here, too, and they've got some great Japanese food.

Unit 8, page 87 (CD 5, Track 16)

- Emma: Hi, Sam. What are you reading?
- Sam: I'm reading about a real-life hero. His name was Muelmar Magallanes.
- Emma: Why was he a hero?
- Sam: He saved people during a storm in the Philippines.
- Emma: When was this storm?
- Sam: It was in 2009. There was very heavy rain and water started to come into people's homes. The people tried to leave, but many of them died.
- Emma: Where was Muelmar?
- Sam: Well, first he moved his family to high ground and saved them. Then, he returned with his brother to save his neighbours. They saved 30 people.
- Emma: Wow! What happened to Muelmar?
- Sam: He started to return to high ground with his brother. But then, he saw a woman and a baby in the water and went to save them. After he took them to a dry place, he was very weak. The water pulled him under and he disappeared.
- Emma: So in the end, Muelmar died.
- Sam: Yes, he did. It's very sad.
- Emma: How old was he?
- Sam: He was only 18.
- Emma: He was a very kind and brave man. What a hero!

Unit 9, page 97 (CD 5, Track 18)

- Carol: Tom, it's Halloween next month. Are you having a party at your house?
- Tom: Yes, Carol. I have a party every Halloween. I'm going to send invitations next week. Are you coming?
- Carol: Yes, of course. What are you going to wear?
- Tom: I'm going to wear a Frankenstein costume. I'm going to put black make-up under my eyes. What about you?
- Carol: I'm going to wear a Dracula costume with a black suit and white and red make-up on my face.
- Tom: I can't wait to see it!
- Carol: What games are you going to have at the party?
- Tom: We're going to play "Guess the Villain".
- Carol: How do you play that?
- Tom: You pretend to be a famous villain from a film and everyone must guess who you are.
- Carol: That sounds fun. Do you want me to come and help you put decorations around the house? We can put plastic spiders on the wall above the table. What food are you going to buy?
- Tom: I'm going to get some chips and sausages. I want to make monster fingers with them. What about the music?
- Carol: I've got some great music for Halloween. I can bring it to the party.
- Tom: Perfect!
